Frigid Cold Grips State, Rest of U. S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold wave frosted Arkansas today and the Weather Bureau predicted light snow or freezing rain, but said it should be warmer over the weekend.

The Weather Bureau forecast continued cold for Thursday with light snow in the north and rain preceded by freezing rain, in the south.

A warming trend should set in Friday, the Weather Bureau said, but it will be short-lived. The forecast calls for colder early next week with freezing rain, sleet or snow early next week.

The lowest overnight reading was 6 at Gilbert in Searcy County, 7 at Flippin, 9 at Walnut Ridge, 10 at Fayetteville, 12 at Little Rock, 17 at Pine Bluff, 19 at Texarkana and 20 at El Dorado.

Gilbert's 9 didn't approach the all-time low mark for this date, 29 below zero at Gravette in 1905, the Weather Bureau said.

The forecast called for continued cold through Thursday, with temperatures beginning to rise Friday.

The Weather Bureau predicted a chance of light freezing rain or sleet in extreme southern Arkansas today with freezing rain mixed with some sleet and snow spreading over the south portion tonight and Thursday with some light snow in the north Thursday.

Temperatures are expected to be 12 to 18 degrees below the normal of a 51 maximum and 33 low.

The eastern half of the nation suffered through its seventh straight day of subzero cold today and a paralyzing storm smashed an icy path across Texas.

Municipal Judge Salaries Upped

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Senate has approved increases in the salaries of several municipal judges.

On Monday, the Pulaski County delegation introduced a bill covering 36 judgeships, but leaving the salaries unchanged except for the two Little Rock judges who would be increased from $7,200 to $8,400 in a year.

Tuesday the Senate adopted amendments to increase the salary of the Texarkana judge from $5,600 to $7,200, the Fayetteville judge from $5,000 to $6,000 and the Jacksonville judge from $3,600 to $4,800.

Provision was added for a Helena judge, at 4,800, and a Dermott judge at 3,300.

The bill itself has not been acted on.

Legislature Has 4 Bills to Reduce Taxes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Four tax reduction bills were passed by the Arkansas House Tuesday and the Senate stamped its approval on a bill to halt the state's purchase of local industrial development corporation bonds.

Both chambers were in recess until this afternoon — with the House to return to work at 1 p. m. and the Senate to go back into session 30 minutes later.

The Senate measure to get the state out of the development bond buying business also would permit the state to sell the almost $1.5 million worth of such bonds it now holds.

In addition to halting the purchase of local industrial bonds, the measure would prohibit the state from buying bonds of the privately-backed First Arkansas Development Finance Corporation. The state held no bonds from that corporation at the present time.

The change was one of the suggestions made by Gov. Orval E. Faubus in his fourth term inaugural address.

Over in the House, 14 bills were passed — including the four tax reduction measures.

One tax cut would be a state tax exemption for one-third of federal income taxes paid.

Other tax measures approved included a proposal to give gas well operators the same write-off on severance taxes that oil well owners have.

Two bills dealing with sales tax exemptions were approved. One would exempt agricultural seed, fertilizer, herbicides and insecticides. The other would exempt only seed and fertilizer.

The Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee, at the same time, was recommending a tightening of sales tax and use tax exemptions. It recommended approval of measures to restrict exemptions in the use tax on out of state purchases and the application of the same tightened restrictions to the sales tax. Involved are exemptions dealing with materials to be used in integral parts of machinery or equipment for manufacturing, processing, communications or transportation.

A bill introduced in the Senate would permit cities to receive an increased amount of highway turnback funds. A similar measure was passed in the House.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

Arkansas State Highway Department has purchased five acres of land on Highway 29, north, near Rowe's Store and is in process of clearing off the acreage and building a county maintenance headquarters which will operate separately from the main shops on 67 west.

At the March of Dimes tea in the Governor's Mansion last week the door prize, a new white straw hat, was won by Linda Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown. Others making the trip from Hope were Cookie Jones, Judy Griffin, Mrs. Laura Mae Impson, drive director, Charlotte Goud, treasurer and Millie Flowers, director of the teenage division.

Some 700 seniors and graduate students will receive degrees at mid-year commencement ceremonies at the University of Arkansas Jan. 28. Candidates for Bachelor of Arts degrees are Toni Thompson Nix of Hope, Mary Joe Hamilton of Prescott, Joe Hamilton of Prescott, Charles Bachelor of Science, Charles Leroy Hooten of Prescott.

SHIP SEIZED — AMERICAN AND BRITISH warcraft are searching the Atlantic for the 20,000-ton Portuguese luxury liner Santa Maria which was reported seized by 70 armed men in a fantastic act of piracy. With 400 passengers aboard, the ship had been headed from La Guayra and Curacao, two islands off the coast of Venezuela, for Port Everglades, Fla., the Port of Miami. The liner was last seen near the island of St. Lucia where it made a stop to land eight wounded crewmen. A radio message received in the U. S. from the leader of the pirates said that "all is normal aboard." — NEA Telephoto

Drink Tax May Go to Public Vote

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A leading opponent of a proposed soft drink tax to support an educational construction bond issue indicated today the legislature probably will not pass the measure to a popular vote.

Perry Rep. Paul Val Dalsom, a legislative leader, said "You cannot deny the people the right to vote on something." But he added, "I am still going to oppose the tax."

Presidents of the University of Arkansas and state-supported colleges proposed the $52 million bond issue to finance construction at the eight institutions and also at the State Hospital and Arkansas Children's Colony. They suggested the penny-a-bottle soft drink tax to support the bond issue.

Any bond issue must be approved by a statewide referendum and the present proposal also would provide for a vote on the tax.

Saline Rep. Virgil Fletcher said he might vote to refer the tax to a vote, but that he didn't think it would pass.

Crawford Rep. Milton Willis said he had detected increasing sentiment among legislators to refer the proposal to a vote. "It's pretty hard to refuse to let the people at least have a vote on something," he said.

Willis also reported receiving a number of letters from college students asking support for the bond issue-tax measure. He said these apparently originated "at the insistence of the college administrations." He said the letters have followed an almost identical pattern.

Pulaski Rep. Jim Brandon said he also had received a number of similar letters.

Carmichael Elected by Searcy Vote

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Alderman Leslie Carmichael defeated former Alderman Glenn W. Jones 147-611 Tuesday in a special election for mayor.

Mayor B. H. Lacy resigned recently on the advice of his physician.

Delay Sought in Nuclear Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is reported ready to seek a delay of a few weeks in the nuclear test talks now scheduled to resume in Geneva Feb. 7.

This was understood to have been discussed Tuesday at a White House meeting of President Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and disarmament chief John J. McCloy.

The nuclear talks involve Britain, the United States and the Soviet Union. They were suspended Dec. 5.

Many top administration officials believe more time may be needed to review the issue before formulating the "serious and precise proposals." Kennedy has termed essential to easing East-West tension.

Harvard Man Appointed by Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today appointed Arthur Schlesinger Jr., Harvard University professor and historian of the New Deal, as a full-time special assistant.

Schlesinger was an adviser to Adlai E. Stevenson in his 1952 and 1956 presidential campaigns. He filled the same role for Kennedy in last fall's primary and presidential campaigns.

He will do a variety of White House jobs for Kennedy, press secretary Pierre Salinger told newsmen in announcing the naming of Schlesinger.

Salinger also announced the following further selections of officials in the new administration: Frank M. Coffin, former Democratic representative from Maine to be director of the Development Loan Fund, in the State Department.

James Harlan Cleveland of Syracuse, N. Y., to be assistant secretary of state for international organizations affairs.

George C. McGhee of Dallas, Tex., former ambassador to Turkey, and former assistant secretary of state, to be assistant secretary of state for policy planning.

William J. Crockett, now deputy assistant secretary of state for budget and finance, to be assistant secretary for administration.

Conrad L. Wirth, to continue as director of the National Park Service.

Carl T. Rowan, reporter for the Minneapolis Star and Tribune and former correspondent of the Baltimore Afro-American, to be deputy assistant secretary of state for public affairs.

Carmine Bellino, certified public accountant who served as chief accountant to the Senate rackets investigating committee, to be special consultant to the President and to the budget director.

The White House said the State Department designations were made after consultation with Secretary of State Dean Rusk; that the reappointment of Wirth follows consultation with Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, and that Rusk will make the Rowan appointment with the concurrence of President Kennedy.

Launching Delayed

BALTIMORE (AP)—High winds prevented the launching Tuesday of the first freighter christened by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, wife of the vice president.

The ship, SS Solon Tarmann, remained in its ways after being hit with the bottle of champagne.

Mel Blanc Is Injured in Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mel Blanc, the man with a thousand voices known to millions, was in critical condition today, suffering from multiple injuries resulting from a head-on collision that demolished his car.

Blanc, the voice of Bugs Bunny and Woody Woodpecker, received compound fractures of both legs and head lacerations Tuesday night when his hardtop sports car collided with an auto driven by a college student.

Attendees at the UCLA Medical Center said he would undergo leg surgery.

Blanc, 51, was pinned in his car and had to be freed by police and ambulance attendants. The accident occurred on Sunset Boulevard, not far from the UCLA campus.

Arthur Holston, 18, driver of the other car, suffered only minor knee injuries. He is a student at Menlo College.

Police said Holston's car went out of control on a curve and hit Blanc's after crossing the center line.

Blanc's vocal creations have ranged from the impertinent "What's up, doc?" of Bugs, the roguish rabbit, to the wheezing and hacking of Jack Benny's ancient Maxwell car.

His voice has been dubbed into scores of Warner Brothers cartoons. He has estimated his voice has been used in more than 1,000 films.

New White House Doctor Is Woman

WASHINGTON (AP)—The next White House physician may be a woman, Dr. Janet G. Travell of New York.

Announcement of her appointment is expected within a day or two.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Tuesday Kennedy's choice for personal physician would not be from the armed forces. He refused to comment further.

It has been almost 40 years since a president has selected a non-service doctor as White House physician. There never has been a woman in the post.

Dr. Travell is credited with curing Kennedy of severe back trouble which bothered him for a number of years.

She reportedly discovered Kennedy's left leg is slightly shorter than his right and that this contributed to the back trouble. It was corrected with a lift in the left shoe.

A graduate of Cornell University Medical School, Dr. Travell has practiced in New York City since 1926. She is married to John Powell, an investment counselor. They have two married daughters.

Magnolia Man Killed in Wreck

LEWISVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A Magnolia man was killed and three other persons were injured Tuesday in a head-on collision on Highway 82 four miles west of here.

James Henry Van Meter, 55, was killed instantly when the car in which he was riding, driven by Morris Calloway, 46, also of Magnolia, collided with a car driven by John Stewart of Bradley.

Stewart and his wife, a passenger in the car, were hospitalized in Lewisville. Calloway was in fair condition in a Magnolia hospital.

GOPs Charge Pressure for Rules Change

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana charged today that Secretary of Interior Stewart A. Udall "has been calling" Republicans in behalf of a move to expand the House Rules Committee.

"I have direct information," Halleck told newsmen, "about three who are in areas particularly sensitive to the Interior Department."

He said Udall talked to them about a rules change backed by the Democratic leadership to break a conservative coalition's hold on the committee.

Halleck would not identify the Republicans he said had been implored by Udall.

However, Rep. William H. Harrison, R-Wyo., was named by other Republicans as having been approached. Harrison declined to affirm or deny it.

Halleck's charge of Cabinet-level interference in the House rules controversy followed an announcement by Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., that a vote on a resolution to increase the Rules Committee had been put off from Thursday until next Tuesday.

Rayburn said the vote was being postponed to next week at the request of many members who would be unable to be present Thursday.

Kiwanians Hear Rev. Sweeney

The Rev. A. J. Sweeney, pastor of Walnut St. Church of Christ, was guest speaker before Hope Kiwanis club yesterday at its luncheon meeting at Hotel Barlow.

He spoke on the "True Values of Life," a spiritual and moral topic as contrasted to the unchurched and non-Christian way of living. The program was arranged by Dewey Baber.

Gug Grigg was introduced as a new member of the club—or rather a former member returning to the fold. Julian P. Melberg of Moorhead, Minn., was a guest of the club. Mr. Melberg has 38 consecutive years of perfect attendance as a Kiwanian.

Help on Exam

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A school girl called the Batesville Daily Guard and, in a low voice, asked a reporter to name members of the Arkansas congressional delegation.

The reporter had named all but one and was trying to come up with the final name when the girl said, "That's enough, I've got to hurry back to the classroom and finish my examination."

Truckers Seek to Void Ruling

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U. S. Supreme Court may be asked to void an Arkansas Supreme Court ruling which held that out-of-state firms which transport goods in interstate commerce through Arkansas are subject to state property taxes.

Nineteen trucking firms indicated Tuesday they would appeal the Nov. 21, 1960, decision as unconstitutional.

The state Supreme Court ruling upheld Pulaski Chancellor Guy E. Williams.

Segregation Trouble in New York

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—A lawyer for the New Rochelle Board of Education says that if a federal judge's school integration order is sustained, the school district policies of most communities in the North will require revision.

The lawyer, Julius Weiss, said the judge's decision invalidated the neighborhood school policy in this New York City suburb.

Most Northern communities, he said, have similar policies which require children to attend schools in the neighborhoods where they live.

Judge Irving R. Kaufman issued an order in New York City Tuesday in which he said the Board of Education here had deliberately created and maintained a racially segregated grammar school. He ordered the board to devise a plan to desegregate the 94 per cent-Negro Lincoln School starting no later than the 1961-62 school year.

Counsel for the board had argued that there was no segregation, and defended the city's so-called "neighborhood school" policy.

Limited Space at Annual CC Banquet

Everything is set for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet Thursday night at Hotel Barlow which will feature a discussion of Millwood Dam.

Special guests include Roy Mathias, executive director of the Red River Valley Association; members of the Southwest Arkansas Water District board, the State Chamber of Commerce and the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

Space is limited and local citizens are urged to purchase their tickets now from the Chamber of Commerce, either bank, Bill Wray Supply, Crescent and Cox Drug stores.

Radio Report Indicates All Aboard Safe

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Danish merchant ship sighted the hijacked liner Santa Maria today about 900 miles east of Trinidad, Navy headquarters here said.

The position of the liner, as reported by the Danish ship, the Vioke Galva, seemed to confirm radio bearings taken on the ship by Navy aircraft, a spokesman said.

Navy planes headed for the area immediately.

The Santa Maria was reported heading on a course south of east, which if held would take her toward the central part of the African coast.

Meanwhile, the search force had grown from the original seven planes and two destroyers. The Navy said that at the latest report a British frigate has joined in the hunt and up to 14 Navy planes were now in the search.

NEW YORK (AP)—The leader of Portuguese dissidents who seized the cruise liner Santa Maria radiated to the Columbia Broadcasting System today that the vessel would not be surrendered to either Portuguese or foreign ships.

"If we are followed by Portuguese or foreign ships we will not surrender, nor will we stop," said the message from Henrique Galvao.

"We place responsibility of attacks, whoever attacks against the ship."

The latter assertion evidently meant that anyone seeking to interfere with the vessel would be held responsible for the deed.

Several American and British craft are pursuing the Santa Maria.

A U.S. Navy spokesman in Puerto Rico said American craft had orders to stop and search the liner only if they apprehend her on the high seas.

A Portuguese vessel has put to sea from Lisbon in an effort to intercept the Santa Maria, and parts of the Portuguese navy have been ordered on a standby basis.

In his message to CBS, Galvao also said passengers shortly would be put ashore at a neutral

ESD Denies Hatch Act Violations

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Charges of Hatch Act violations have been denied by five employees of the Employment Security Division and the state.

The denials were mailed to the federal Civil Service Commission Saturday and Monday, attorneys said. The commission was asked to provide more details of the charges.

The five are accused of forcing other ESD employees to contribute to Gov. Orval E. Faubus' fourth term campaign.

The Hatch Act prohibits persons paid with federal funds from engaging in political activities.

The employees' denial was sent Saturday. R. Ben Allen, Little Rock attorney representing the accused, said. The state denial was submitted Monday. Assistant Atty. Gen. Milos H. Hale said.

Accused are Luke Arnett, acting ESD administrator during Faubus' campaign; William Watkins, supervisor of field audits; John Curas, district field supervisor; Robert O. Rainwater, ESD business manager, and Charles P. Wod, assistant manager of the Little Rock area office.

Talks Favor of Use Tax Exemptions

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An advocate of bills for uniforms sales and use tax exemptions predicted today that adoption of the measures would result in Arkansas firms getting at least $75 million worth of business each that they now lose.

The statement was made to the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee by Frank Cantrell, executive vice president of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce at a committee hearing today.

The committee took no immediate action on the bills, introduced last week by Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock, to tighten use tax exemptions and extend the same exemptions to the sales tax. The use tax is similar to the sales tax but is paid on purchases made outside the state.

Fagan and other sponsors of the bills say that Arkansas manufacturers lose much business because use tax exemptions permitted on certain machinery and equipment used in manufacturing, processing, transportation, communication and the like are not allowed on the sales tax.

Fagan's bills are designed to correct this situation.

The committee later recommended passage of the bills, Sen.
J. Beardon of Leachville, the chairman, said the vote was 5-2, but he did not say who voted for and against the recommendations.

Cantrell said that apparently adoption of the bills would result in an initial loss of perhaps $1.5 million annually in sales tax. But he estimated a net overall gain of around $700,000 annually, based on the expectation of the $75 million yearly business increase.

Cantrell said the figures he gave the committee were based on a study by a certified public accountant, which was undertaken at the request of the state Chamber and the affiliated Associated Industries of Arkansas Inc.

Fagan and others said they believed two plants which have been constructed in Arkansas would have bought materials in the state that they actually purchased from outside if the proposed use tax exemptions had applied.

As it was, they said, the state did not get any tax.

Fagan said that the state was trying to draw industry and declared, "We have got everything except an attractive tax program."

He said that if it turned out he was mistaken in his evaluation of the effect of the proposed laws, "I will be the first one to ask for their repeal two years from now."

WANTS NO CHANGE
in Road Money

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—The president of the Arkansas Good Roads Association, Rabie Rhodes of Harrison, said today he is opposed to any change in the present distribution of tax money for Arkansas highway construction.

Rhodes said he thought the present formula was fair and equitable. He said the Arkansas Highway Commission has based its construction program on the amount of money now derived from the tax.

There has been speculation that cities and counties might seek to get a larger share of $2 million a year which becomes available with the repayment of some high-

Message to Discuss World
Situation

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was reported today to be preparing a somber recital of world and domestic conditions in a State of the Union message he will deliver to Congress Monday.

Associates said the President feels Congress and the country should be given what he regards as a realistic appraisal of turbulent global conditions and a hesitating economy at home.

Democratic leaders with whom Kennedy discussed the message at a White House conference Tuesday said they expect him to cover the Congo, Laos and other world trouble spots and to discuss mounting unemployment at home.

They anticipate Kennedy will follow this up with a series of messages outlining specific legislative proposals and suggesting changes in the $80.9-billion budget former President Dwight D. Eisenhower sent Congress Jan. 16.

An economic message will deal broadly with business conditions and might suggest some tax changes. If it is not included in this, a separate message may recommend early action on a measure to aid depressed areas of chronic unemployment. It was believed possible the President might link this with a request for funds to bolster unemployment compensation payments.

Without even waiting for Kennedy to lay down his proposals, congressional Republicans organized their Senate and House forces for a "battle of the budget." Senate Minority Leader Everett M.
Dirksen of Illinois predicted it will be the overriding issue in the 1961 session.

Dirksen and Rep. Charles A.
Haleck of Indiana, the House minority leader, agreed to meet weekly with four colleagues from each house to map Republican strategy.

Dirksen indicated that Eisenhower will be called on for advice when Kennedy suggests to a vote.

Brazil was one of those who said he thought it was impossible for the bill to pass, judging from "talk at this time."

Washington County Rep. Charles Stewart said he had not made up his mind about the bill. Then he displayed about 40 handwritten post cards urging him to vote against the measure.

Wimpy explained his position of favoring the bill as a matter of being consistent.

"I'm for Arkansas State College becoming a university," he said.

"If it's to become a university, we must have more students, and, if we get more students we've got to have more classrooms."

"I'm right on top of the fence," said Nevada County Rep. C. O.
Wahlquist.

"I haven't been pushed either way," said Newton County Rep.
W. D. Baker.

Pulaski County Rep. Sterling W.
Cockrill said he was 50 per cent for and 50 per cent against the bill.

"I favor the proposed building program," Cockrill said, "but I'm against the tax."

Asked how he thought money to finance a college construction program should be raised, Cockrill said he favored broadening the sales tax base by including agricultural products.

"I can't vote for a tax on soft drinks when the farmers aren't paying any tax at all on many items," Cockrill said.

Van Dalsem said, "You cannot deny the people the right to vote on something."

Step Toward Filling Point
Out in Space

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States takes its first tentative step today toward creation of cosmic filling stations for space ships.

In time, a series of these space platforms could become manned refueling points and wayside inns for astronauts bound on trips of exploration around the solar system—and possibly beyond.

Initially the problem is to find out whether such filling stations can be put together and how.

There is no thought of putting men on them for some time.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced today that a $100,000 contract to study the problems involved had been let by the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, Ala., to the Lockheed Aircraft Corp., Sunnyvale, Calif.

Under the contract, Lockheed is to study the feasibility of sending two satellites into orbit and then hooking them together while they are whirling through space at 18,000 miles an hour.

If the Lockheed study indicates that the experiment is technically possible, then NASA will give it a try, using the Thor-Agena B and the Atlas-Agena-B missile and satellite combinations.

NASA said there was no time-changes in the defense budget the former president submitted. He said former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Gov. Nelson A.

Rockefeller of New York, and others will be called in when issues come up with which they are familiar. Sen. Thruston B.
Morton of Kentucky, the Republican national chairman, will serve the conference as its presiding officer.

The Kathleen Mallory and Ann Wollerman Circles of the First Baptist Church met Jan. 23 in the Educational Building for the Royal Service program.

The Mallory circle presented a program on the Indians with Mrs. C. M. Rogers Jr. as leader. The room was decorated in Indian designs.

Mrs. Harold Brents, president of WMS, conducted a short business meeting. The District meeting will be Feb. 9 at the Emanuel Baptist Church in Texarkana.

Mrs. Henry Haynes read an interesting letter from Ann Wollerman, the missionary the circle was named after. Mrs. Roy Taylor closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Whitworth Bridge Hostess

Mrs. H. C. Whitworth was hostess to her Friday Bridge Club Jan. 20 and used nardisuses as floral decorations.

High score prizes were won by Mrs. C. C. Lewis and Mrs. M. M. McCloughan.

For refreshments the hostess served an ice course and coffee to two tables of club members.

Sweet Home HD Club Meets

The Sweet Home HD Club met in the home of Mrs. B. J. Warnken, the president, Friday, Mrs. Eva Ward gave the devotional and the eye opener. Roll call was answered with a goal for the year. The minutes were read by the secretary. The club project will be work on the club house.

Mrs. Phillips, agent, showed a film on Civil Defense.

Refreshments were served to 12 members and two visitors. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. C. A. Phillips on Feb. 17.

McCaskey H. D. Club Meets in Home of Mrs. Claid Bittick

Civil Defense was the subject of the McCaskey Home Demonstration Club meeting held Thursday night January 19, 1961 at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. Claid Bittick with three guests present, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. Wagner, all of McCaskey.

After the meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. R. G. Shuffield, she led the group in re-

OH, MY ACHING BACK

Now You can get the fast relief you need from aching back, headache and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. When these discomforts come on with over-exertion or stress and strain - you want relief - want it fast! Another disturbance may be mild bladder irritation following wrong food and drink - often setting up a restless uncomfortable feeling. Dan's Pills work fast in a separate way - 1. by steady pain-relieving action to ease torment of nagging headache, back-ache, muscular aches and pains. 2. by soothing effect on bladder irritation. 3. by mild diuretic action tending to increase output of the 15 million of kidney tubes. peating the club's creed. Mrs. J. G. Prescott gave an "eye-opener" demonstration about the conveniences of a cleaning basket to carry from room to room while working. She also read an interesting article about the care of waxed surfaces.

The members sang "Count Your Many Blessings", after which Mrs. Loy Rodgers presented the Devotional. The Scripture reading was from Matthew 16:26. Everyone then recited the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Prescott, secretary, called the roll and each one answered with her "goal for the new year". She then read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. Mrs. Shuffield next read the "Thought for the Month".

Mrs. Bittick, HD Relations Leader and Ground Observer Corps leader for the McCaskey area gave a very informative talk on "Home Preparedness". A very clever demonstration about making a "tote-bag" from pine needles was last given by Mrs. Woodruff.

The meeting was adjourned with Mrs. Bittick serving delicious coffee, hot chocolate and cookies to those present. Mrs. J. G. Prescott will have the February 16th meeting in her home.

Chapter AE of the P. E. O. Holds Meeting

Chapter AE of the P. E. O. met with Mrs. Gus Haynes and Mrs. E. H. Stewart on January 24 at the Haynes home. Nardisuses were used in the home as floral decorations. The routine business meeting was conducted by the President, Mrs. F. P. O'Neal.

Yellow candles were used in the panel discussion of Founder's Day led by Mrs. B. N. Holt. Others taking part were Mrs. Henry Haynes, Mrs. Rufus Sorrells, and Mrs. F. M. Horton.

The group joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Horton before they went into the dining room to be served. The table, centered with an arrangement of fruit held salad, cookies coffee and tea. These were enjoyed by the 15 attending.

Miss Janet McKenzie Honored With Kitchen Shower

Mrs. Perry Moses, Mrs. Henry Haynes and Mrs. F. M. Horton entertained January 21 in the Moses home with a kitchen shower for Miss Janet McKenzie, bride-elect of Buddy Nix of Memphis, Tenn. Besides attractive greenery in the home, there were also seen on the coffee table a miniature bride and groom encircled by white tulle.

After several games had been enjoyed by the guests, they were invited into the dining room and were served from a table overlaid with a green cloth and decorated with fruit. Mrs. John Freeman of Arkadelphia served the salad, and Miss Mary Charlene Horton poured the coffee and the punch. Miss Linda Halbert of North Little Rock, Mrs. Sarah Moses of Arkadelphia, and Mrs. Dan Logan, Jr. of Gilliam, La., were out-of-town guests.

Even a girl as naturally pretty as this one must give her good looks time and care. Gilding the lily is part of a daily program for Linda Bement, who is Miss Universe. She is adept at giving herself a home permanent (left). For she feels that the soft fullness of the current hairstyles requires more body than her hair has. She is also a great fan of the hairbrush and gives her dark hair one hundred strokes (center) each day. Her efforts pay off (right). As she tries on an evening (lira, she's confident that her hair will hold a set for many long hours.

Hope Duplicate Bridge Club Meets at Diamond

There were 3 1/2 tables of players at the Hope Duplicate Bridge Club meeting on January 23 at the Diamond. The highest scoring couple was that of Mrs. A. K. Holloway and Mrs. E. P. Young, Jr.

A tie for second was between Miss Elizabeth Bridwell - Mrs. Harry Hawthorne and Mrs. R. L. Broach - Luther Hollamon. Mrs. J. C. Broyles and Mrs. Taylor Stuart placed third.

Miss Phala Brown Honored On 15th Birthday

To celebrate the 15th birthday of Miss Phala Brown on January 24 her mother, Mrs. Lyle Brown had an informal party at the Brown home after school. Attractive arrangements of holly were seen in the home, where cold drinks and birthday cake were served to 11 friends of the honoree.

Tuesday Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. John Britt

Camellias and branches of pussy willow graced the home of Mrs. John Britt on January 24 when she entertained her Tuesday Bridge Club. The two tables of players included two club guests Mrs. R. E. Cooper and Mrs. Thomas Kinser.

When scores were tallied, Mrs. K. G. Hamilton was the high scorer. The game prize went to Mrs. Bob Jones. For refreshments a salad plate and coffee were served.

Rocky Mount Home Demonstration Club Meets

On Thursday, January 19, 1961, the Rocky Mount Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Norman Taylor. The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. C. L. Roberts, and the Creed was repeated in unison.

The devotional was given by the hostess: after which the song leader led the group in singing. New and old business was attended to and Mrs. Phillips showed a film on Civil Defense.

Refreshments were served to ten members and three guests. Next meeting will be February 15, 1961, in the home of Mrs. Clifford Messer.

Paisley Daffodil Garden Club Meets

The Paisley Daffodil Garden Club met in the school auditorium for their regular meeting January 23. Stany Paris called the meeting to order. Donna Byers led the club in singing two verses of "America". Richard Salley led the group in the pledge. Susan Pierce read the minutes of the last meeting. The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Steve Carrigan who gave a very informative talk on Birds.

Refreshments were served and the meeting was adjourned.

Wife Finds it the Old Story

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

I am 33, my husband 38. He has run around with other women ever since we married 16 years ago. He even tells me about some of the times.

I loved him and for the sake of our 14-year-old child, put up with his extra-marital activities, but it's reached the point where I'm on the verge of a nervous breakdown. I would leave were it not for spending the rest of my life alone.

My husband makes a good living and professes to love me. How can a man love a woman and do as he does?

Please print this. Maybe it will help husbands to realize how a wife feels.—Need-your-advice.

Dear Need-your-advice: It may be that your husband does love you in his fashion. It may be that his affairs are in the nature of immature adventures. If so, try to make him understand how he is hurting you. Arrange to have him discuss the matter with you and your clergyman, or with you and your doctor.

Dear Helen:

I am 47 and my family, all but one little girl of five, is grown. I like to write. Perhaps now is the time to start. What do you think?—Fern.

Dear Fern: Have you ever written? If so, what? Do you keep notebooks, collect words and study phrases? Are you a reader? Is writing a mastering dream? Do you feel that nature has endowed you with this talent, or life equipped you to appreciate character, evaluate situations, have a point of view and translate all this into readable copy? Then you may become a writer. Yet even this is not enough. You must feel the urge to communicate your ideas, to share an experience or tell a story.

Writing, like any of the creative arts, is something which you must live, breathe and be part of your very being 24 hours a day.

It is not to be approached casually or treated as a stop-gap. For that reason the thousands who say, "I've always wanted to write," seldom do. However, there are some writers who do flower late in life, provided they have strong convictions and experiences worth the telling. Maybe you belong in that group. Just in case, I'm sending you my leaflet, "And So You Want to Write."

Dear Helen:

I am 14, the age when a girl longs to be popular, but I am just the opposite—self-conscious, tongue-tied and awkward.

I'm even shy with my best friends. Help me and please print this. It may do something for other teen-agers who suffer from an inferiority complex.—Desperate.

Dear Desperate: To be self-conscious is to be selfish—in thinking of self first. Forget self in thinking of others. Pay your schoolmates the compliment of being more interested in what they're doing than how you are reacting. See your inhibitions for what they are—the familiar symptoms of adolescence. Consign them to the limbo where they belong and be your natural, normal self.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available.

It Couldn't Happen But It Really Did

LOS ANGELES (AP) — They said $113,200 just couldn't be missing—but it was. They said the crime couldn't happen—but it did. Investigators concluded: "Somebody goofed."

With that puzzling observation, the case was put in a file marked "unsolved." That was 19 months ago.

Monday the FBI disclosed the arrest of two men—and said the mystery at least was partially solved.

Here's what happened:

At 9:30 a.m., June 4, 1959, truck No. 59 of Armored Transport Co. picked up currency and coin at the Bank of America's 11th and Figueroa branch.

In the next 6 1/2 hours, the truck made 17 routine stops, picking up money at banks and business firms. At the end of the run, a money bag containing the $113,200 was gone.

The guards told investigators they had left the truck unguarded but locked—not an unusual occurrence—at five brief stops. When they returned there was nothing to indicate anyone had broken into the truck, they said.

The guards were checked—and cleared. The route was re-traced inch by inch for clues—but nothing turned up.

Monday Eli Lubin, 40, a one-time cronie of ex-gambler Mickey Cohen, and Glenn M. Tharp Jr., 36, a salesman soliciting business for the armored truck firm until his arrest last week, were arraigned. They pleaded innocent to charges of conspiracy and theft of federally insured money. Investigators said they refused to discuss the case.

The FBI, withholding details of what led to the arrests, said: "Investigation indicated Lubin was unlawfully furnished keys to Armored Transport Co. trucks by Tharp."

William G. Simon, FBI agent in charge here, said Lubin took the money from the truck while it was left unguarded—possibly with the help of others. He indicated there may be additional arrests.

What happened to the money? That's still an unsolved question, the FBI said.

Radio Report

port.

The message seemed to indicate, also, that those who seized the vessel also might disembark, but this was not clear. This was the way CBS translated the Portuguese wording of the radio-gram:

"American passengers, as well as all the others, understand perfectly the legitimacy of our struggle for liberty by the most enthusiastic forces at my command. "We will shortly find a neutral port where we will disembark with safety for them, for us and for our ship."

By SAUL PATT

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—U.S. Navy planes closed in today on the reported position of a mystery ship in tropical Atlantic waters and Portuguese authorities said the captive liner Santa Maria has been located.

American confirmation of this was lacking, with Navy men saying they will not consider the Santa Maria located until it has been sighted and identified.

But the Portuguese seemed convinced that the vessel trailed by monitoring of its radio is the Santa Maria. Rear Adm. Surmento Rodrigues declared in Lisbon the liner "will be sighted within a few hours."

The Portuguese frigate Pedro Escobar put to sea and a standby order went out to all Portuguese naval commands in the West African colony of Angola, the Azores, the Cape Verde Islands and Mozambique—all areas controlled from Lisbon.

The 20,906-ton liner was seized Sunday by enemies of the Salazar regime in Portugal. At the time the vessel was between Venezuela and Florida, on a course to set some of its 600 passengers ashore at Port Everglades, Fla., Tuesday.

Four twin-engine Neptunes of the U.S. Navy circled over a 100-mile radius centered 400 miles due east of Guadeloupe, a French possession in the Leeward Islands. They were following a radio fix, a method by which monitoring stations compare notes to determine the location of a transmitter through triangulation.

Portugal's navy gave approximately the same position. They said the Santa Maria was located 350 miles east of the Windward Islands, southern neighbors of the Leewards.

The Santa Maria, with Henrique Malta Galvao's hijackers in command, paused Monday off St. Lucia, one of the Windwards, and sent ashore eight crewmen, including one wounded severely by gunshot in the battle for the ship.

Messages from the Santa Maria this morning, handled in an exchange with an RCA station at Chatham, Mass., were "All well—don't worry" assurances from passengers to their homefolks.

A Navy spokesman at San Juan headquarters directing the search for the Portuguese liner said a radio fix had been obtained on a ship 500 miles southeast of Barbados that "might be the Santa Maria."

A check of that area proved fruitless.

At dawn the hunt moved north. The Neptunes, long-range reconnaissance planes, were under instructions to determine the position, course and speed of the ship.

British radio monitors expressed belief the Santa Maria was on a course toward Angola. This is about 5,000 miles across the Atlantic from the West Indies.

U.S. and Dutch planes and American and British surface craft took part in the search for the liner—seized on the high seas with the avowed aim of startling ouster of Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, Portugal's ruler for 33 years.

From the trim multimillion-dollar liner, the rebels broadcast a triumphant "mission accomplished" to the master mind of the daring plot, Gen. Humberto Delgado?

Delgado, who fled into exile after he charged the Salazar regime robbed him of the presidency in the 1958 election, disclosed at Sao Paulo, Brazil, that the 70 men who seized the Santa Maria were acting on his orders as head of the National Independent Junta of Liberation.

The 54-year-old general appealed to the United States and Britain to call off their pursuers.

"The Santa Maria case does not represent mutiny or piracy but is an appropriation of a Portuguese transport by Portuguese men for Portuguese political purposes," he said in telegrams to American Ambassador John Moors Cabot and British Ambassador Sir Geoffrey Wallinger in Rio de Janeiro.

Capt. Henrique Malta Galvao, the swashbuckling soldier-playwright-politician who led the band that captured the Santa Maria, broadcast a warning his men would resist any attempt to retake the ship.

"We will not surrender in any case," Galvao pledged in a message to Delgado. "We follow our secret destination and salute your excellency, the chief of state elected by the people."

Galvao reported everything normal among the 600 passengers, who include at least 38 Americans. He said the crew of 360 had "accepted the occupation as fait accompli (a fact accomplished)." But one ship's officer was killed and several wounded in the battle that accompanied the seizure of the ship.

Frigid Cold

Northeast continued to suffer in the nation's longest and coldest midwinter spell.

The Texas storm covered much of the state with snow and ice and stretched to the state with snow and ice stretched to the southern tip of the state near Brownsville. Highways were covered with ice. The freezing rains, which continued through the night in some sections, crippled traffic and snapped power and phone lines. At least six deaths were attributed to the storm.

Temperatures on the south plains of Texas hovered near the 10-degree mark and winds up to 60 miles an hour lashed Floydada where nearly 2 1/2 inches of snow fell. Parts of Oklahoma and New Mexico also felt the fury of the storm.

Tuesday at Laredo, Tex., the mercury climbed to 80.

The frigid weather in the north, with temperatures far below zero, extended from the Plains to the Atlantic Coast. Readings ranged from zero to more than 20 below in Midwest areas and from zero to 10 below from the eastern upper Great Lakes to New England.

Cold wave warnings were in effect over most areas from the southern half of the Plains into Virginia and the Carolinas. Near-zero weather edge into Kentucky and northern Virginia. The freezing belt covered areas southward into the central Gulf. Southern Florida escaped the chilly weather.

No immediate general relief from the season's longest and coldest weather appeared likely. However, some moderation was expected in the below-zero temperatures in some Midwest sections.

In International Falls, on the Minnesota-Canadian border, it was -25 this morning compared to -32 Tuesday.

Strong northerly winds swept the icy air into the south central and southeast sections during the night.

The mercury plunged to near zero in Plainview, Tex., on the south Plains, which was hit by a heavy snowstorm Tuesday. Sleet, rain, snow and freezing drizzle pelted many sections of Texas during the night.

Rain fell Tuesday night along the Gulf Coast and the Atlantic Coast from South Carolina to northern Florida. As the cold air moved in, the rain changed to freezing rain or sleet in the cen-

Kennedy Conference on Television

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy tonight holds his first news conference since taking office. It will be a precedent-setting session on live television and radio.

The U.S. Information Agency will provide special worldwide coverage, broadcasting recordings of the conference to reach peak listening hours overseas.

The new President's question and answer meeting with newsmen will be carried nationwide on all major U.S. networks starting at 6 p.m. EST.

How long the conference lasts will be determined, the White House has said, in the traditional manner—by the senior wire service reporter when he decides it's time to end the session.

Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said the networks have indicated they intend to broadcast the entire conference this first time, no matter how long it lasts.

Newsmen are certain to seek the views of Kennedy, sworn into office only last Friday, on a wide variety of problems confronting the new administration.

They include dealing with the Communist threat to the free world, the business slump at home, mounting unemployment, the disturbing flow of gold out of the United States, expected revision of the Eisenhower regime's trading and northern parts of the Gulf states. Glazing made driving conditions hazardous.

Snow fell in western Texas and central and southern New Mexico. A fast-moving snowstorm, powered by 60 m.p.h. winds, pounded Texas reaching blizzard proportions in the Plainview area.

A hell of freezing rain or sleet was forecast from central sections of Texas into Louisiana, southern Arkansas, southern and central parts of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

The Weather Bureau in New Orleans said the freezing precipitation was expected to be light during the day but added there was a possibility of a major ice-snow storm over the Gulf Coast states during the next 48 hours.

Snow flurries continued to pepper sections of the Great Lakes, the central Rockies and the northern Plateau states.

ure was introduced in the House Monday.

Scheduled for introduction today was a measure to authorize the state's public school teachers to add Social Security coverage to their retirement system.

The House refused to ratify a proposed constitutional amendment to give residents of Washington, D. C., the right to vote in presidential elections.

"They propose to create another state," Little Rover Rep. Marion Crank, a leading spokesman against ratification, said.

Introduced in the House was a bill to increase the minimum state aid paid to school districts for transporting rural students. The proposed minimum would be $20 per student, $4 more than the present minimum.

Among other bills introduced in the House were measures to:

Authorize a $5 increase in the present $60 maximum old age welfare grant.

Require voters to show their poll tax receipts before being allowed to cast ballots.

And create a state board to regulate accountants who are not certified public accountants.

About 3 million bicycles are sold in the United States each year, most of them for children.

spending plans and enactment by Congress of legislative proposals Kennedy backed during the campaign.

In one major respect the formula at Kennedy news conferences will be the same as it has been since 1933 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt put the sessions on a wide open basis. There will be no questions barred and Kennedy won't know what they are until they are fired at him.

Kennedy will be setting precedent in these ways:

1. He is starting a policy of letting the TV and radio networks broadcast any or all of his news conferences on a live basis.

2. Kennedy is the first president to hold a formal news conference at night—and there will be more of them from time to time at evening hours. Generally, however, the conferences will be held during the day with the sessions alternating between morning and afternoon.

3. At Kennedy news conferences reporters will be permitted to quote the President directly and immediately.

New Pro Team Has Choice of 96 Players

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings, who will become the National Football League's 14th team this fall, today were studying a list of 96 available veterans, hoping to do better than Dallas in its first league season.

Each league club, with the exception of Dallas which managed only one tie and no victories in its first year, had to make available a list of eight players by noon today. Some were ready Monday night. The Vikings can take three from each club a total of 36 players for $550,000.

Bert Rose, general manager of the Vikings, had no illusions about what to expect.

"We know we have a rocky road ahead," he said. "Just as Dallas has had so far. But we are prepared for it. I think this is as equitable a solution as could be worked out."

Didn't he want the right to pick from 11 players, as Dallas had last year?

"We wanted all we could get," he said. "We didn't arrive at any specific figure. We do have one advantage over Dallas in the decision of the league to cut its player limit from 38 to 36 men. That should make more available to us in waivers."

Norm Van Brocklin, the Vikings' coach, Joe Thomas, the club's talent scout, and Rose will make the selections. They already are sure of one player, quarterback George Shaw acquired in a trade with New York, and they had first draft choice in 20 rounds last month.

Pete Rozelle, league commissioner, said the Vikings had until noon Thursday to complete their 36-man selection. The Vikings will notify the various clubs who, in turn, will contact the players.

Alworth Undergoes Surgery Thursday

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Lance Alworth, All-Southwest Conference halfback from the University of Arkansas, is scheduled to undergo surgery to correct a shoulder ailment Thursday.

Alworth has been bothered periodically by the shoulder. He is expected to be recovered in time to participate in baseball and track this spring.

A three-sport letterman, Alworth was a key figure in last season's Razorback SWC football championship.

Lane Makes Trade With Baltimore

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Trader Frank Lane has turned to the Baltimore Orioles and come up with five players in an effort to strengthen the Kansas City Athletics at shortstop and catcher.

In his first deal as the A's general manager, Lane shuffled outfielders Russ Snyder and Whitey Herzog off to Baltimore.

The A's got catcher Clint Courtney, outfielder Al Pilarcik, first baseman Bob Boyd, pitcher Jim Archer and infielder Wayne Causley.

In addition, Lane said, the A's will option an unnamed player to the Orioles' farm club at Rochester in the Class AAA International League.

"This is the type of deal we needed to make in order to start spring training respectably," Lane said.

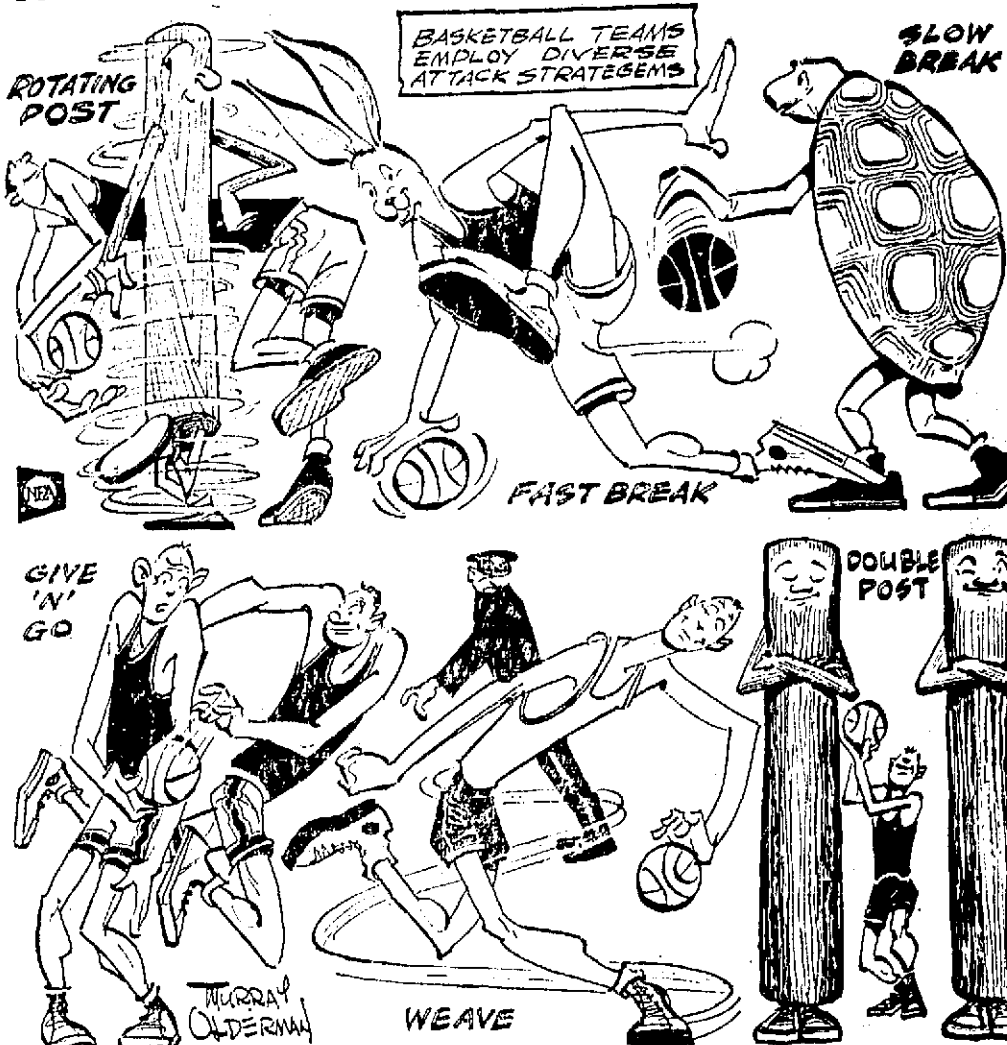

Prior to the deal, the Athletics had only one shortstop, Dick Howser, a rookie who played last season with Shreveport of the Southern Association. As catchers, they had Haywood Sullivan, with limited and undistinguished major league experience, and Bill Bryan, a rookie up from Class D.

Of the other three obtained by the A's, Pilarcik, 30, is the only one conceded a chance to play regularly. He batted 247 in 194 trips last season.

Lee MacPhail, president-general manager of the Orioles, said his main problem has been the outfield "and we acquired two fairly young outfielders who could help our ball club. I had both of them in the Yankee chain and have a great deal of respect for their ability and desire to play."

Snyder, 26, is one of the fastest runners in the league. He hit .313 in 1959 but fell off to .260 last year. Herzog, 29, was benched by an operation for a leg injury last Aug. 17, but his physician has said the operation was a success. Despite intense pain he batted .266.

Crash Settlement Totals $132,500

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—Widows of three victims in an Oklahoma airplane crash Monday won a $132,500 settlement in a suit against the manufacturer of the airplane.

The suit against Northern Aircraft, Inc., of Alexandria, Minn., was filed on behalf of Mrs. Doris Hudson, Mrs. Juanita Weedman and Mrs. Margaret Cromwell.

Their husbands were killed near Broken Bow, Okla., June 12, 1957. The suit alleged that the defendant warranted the plane to be in flying shape, but that the craft came apart and crashed.

Also killed in the crash was Darwin Smith, the pilot. His widow did not participate in the suit.

Youth Perishes in Grass Fire

SHERIDAN, Ark. (AP)—A 4-year-old boy burned in a grass fire at his home at Prattville Saturday died Monday in a Little Rock hospital.

Dead is Marvin Joe Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith. The parents said the boy's clothes caught fire when he darted through a garden plot which was being burned off.

said thinly.

The word seemed to leap up at her like a shouted epithet, angry, ugly, obscene, scrawled in strokes so vicious that in several places the point of the pencil had bitten into the thick stuff of the envelope and torn it.

Turning the envelope back, Blanche pressed it quickly down into her lap as if to crush the word out of existence. Looking down at her, Mrs. Stitt drew her hands stiffly across the front of her apron.

"I'm sorry." Her voice was contrite now, but still unsteady. "I guess I shouldn't have shown you. I hate to be a trouble maker. But—"

Blanche raised a hand. "It's all right." Her gaze slid inadvertently toward the door.

Tech Has Split 8 Games, No Victory Counts

By DON WEISS

How can a basketball team play eight games with conference foes, win half of them, and still be in last place in the conference with an 0-4 record?

Coach Whack Hyder of Georgia Tech's hapless Engineers can give you the answer but probably not the explanation. It's those "count" games the Techmen have sprinkled among their Southeastern Conference schedule. Of the eight games they've played with SEC foes, the Engineers have won the four that didn't count in the standings. They've dropped all four that did count.

No. 4 on the no-count list came Tuesday night when Tech, triggered again by ace Roger Kaiser, spilled defending champion Auburn 48-43 in overtime at Auburn, Ala. Previously Tech had beaten another SEC club, Georgia, three times—without getting credit in the league standings. Two were non-SEC games Dec. 1 and Jan. 11, and the other was a clash between the two in the Birmingham Classic during Christmas Week.

There'll be regular league clashes between Tech and Auburn and Tech and Georgia later on, but that's little consolation at the moment for coach Hyder and a band of Engineers who last year challenged for the SEC title right up to the final game.

Massachusetts, converting 29 of 34 free throws, upset Canisius 61-57 in overtime; West Texas State blew a 20-point lead before spilling North Texas State 84-77; and Morehead (Ky.) whipped East Tennessee 106-86 in other games on the slim schedule.

With midterm examinations continuing, activity among the major schools is meager again tonight. Major pairings include LSU at New Orleans Loyola, Mercer at Georgia, Canisius vs. Providence, and Kentucky Wesleyan at Louisville.

Veterinarian of Year Named

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dr. Orval H. Meinecke of Hot Springs was named Veterinarian of the Year for 1960 Monday night at the convention of the Arkansas Veterinary Medical Association.

Meinecke is a past president of the organization. He has practiced at Hot Springs since 1946.

Dr. Charles D. Labahn of Fort Smith was elected president of the organization, succeeding Dr. Harvie R. Ellis of Little Rock. Dr. Thayer D. Hendricksen of Little Rock was elected secretary-treasurer, and Dr. James D. Bilberry of McGehee was elected vice-president.
